HAROLD KATZ . . .

When he purchased the 76ers in July 1981, he fulfilled the goal of a confirmed sports fanatic. He had been a 76ers fan for many years and he lived and died with team's successes and failures. As the sole owner of the local NBA franchise, his ambition was two fold—to win a championship with the team (which he did in 1982-83) and also to convert the operation into a profitable business (which he did last year). He has been an immense success in private industry. In 1972 he established a weight loss center in Willow Grove, Pa. which grew into Nutri/System, Inc., a publicly held company headquartered in the Philadelphia suburbs. He sold his interests in the firm in 1986. Katz was born in Philadelphia (May 5, 1937) and was attending high school when his father passed away. Katz then assumed responsibility for operating the family grocery business where he received his first experience in sales, marketing and business management. Eventually he turned to other endeavors to develop his entrepreneurial ability, working as a life insurance salesman for several years and then becoming self-employed in marketing and advertising ventures until he established his weight loss firm. Katz, who is active in many charitable and philanthropic enterprises, lives in Huntingdon Valley, Pa.

JOHN NASH . . .

Elevated to the position of General Manager on June 25, 1986. Succeeded Pat Williams, who held the post for the previous 12 seasons, and became only the fourth G.M. in the club's history. Nash returned to the organization on July 28, 1981 as the team's Assistant General Manager and Business Manager. In the last six years with the Club, Nash has been involved in virtually every facet of the club's operation. He was the overseer of the marketing, group sales and ticket departments and also was directly involved in the radio and television broadcasts of the 76ers games. He not only helped in the contract negotiations, but also served as color man for radio and TV in varying degrees of frequency over the last six years. Nash came to the 76ers after a six year stint as executive secretary of the Big Five Basketball program, but his experience also includes posts with the 76ers, the Flyers, the Eagles, Univ. of Pennsylvania, Blazers, the Spectrum and Atlantic City Race Track. In his previous stay with the Sixers, John worked in the team's ticket office before becoming the Club's group sales director in 1969-70 and 1970-71 for two seasons. Nash is a graduate of St. Joseph's University. He has six children and resides in Gradyville, PA., with his wife the former Ann Raley.

GERRY RYAN . . .

Named the club's business manager on July 1, 1987. Stepped up to his new position from ticket manager, a post he had held since December 1980. In his new job like his old one, he will be involved in the marketing and promotional phases of the operation. A 1975 graduate of St. Joseph's University, where he majored in management and marketing, he worked for five years in the ticket operation of the Spectrum, rising to assistant box office manager before joining the 76ers. He also worked a phase of the 1984 Olympics at Annapolis, Md. and is called to assist at the big concerts at the Vet and JFK stadiums . . . Born May 3, 1953, he resides in Havertown, Pa. with his wife Jane and three sons.

MATT GUOKAS . . .

Perfect example of an individual rising through the ranks to become the head coach of the 76ers on June 14, 1985. Previous career had included roles as player, broadcaster and assistant coach. In his first season as the Sixers pilot he guided the club to a 54-28 regular season mark, fourth best in the NBA in 1985-86. Took his shorthanded squad into post-season play and came within a field goal of advancing to the Eastern Conference Finals. Last year 209 games lost by injury plus the Erving farewell tour were major factors in the team's 45-37 record. Started his NBA fling as a first round Sixers draft choice out of St. Joseph's in 1966-67 and performed on club's NBA title team of 1966-67. Played 4-1/2 seasons with the Sixers before moving on to Chicago, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Houston, Buffalo, back to Chicago and back to Kansas City to close out a 10-year career in which he scored 4285 points in 16,603 minutes in 735 games. Returned to the Sixers in 1977 to join the team's broadcasting crew. Then in December 1981 he stepped out of the broadcast booth to become Billy Cunningham's assistant as the replacement for Chuck Daly. In his tenure as Billy's aide, he demonstrated his knowledge of the game and an ability to teach the pros. Did extensive studies of plays and strategy of Sixers foes and was given much credit for the team's preparation, especially during 1982-83 championship season. Directed team's rookie camp and Princeton League team in summers of 1983 and 1984. Had brief flings at head coaching berth when Cunningham was ejected from games and also in 1983-84 when Cunningham missed game due to illness. Started college career at Miami (Fla.) U. but left after freshman season to go to St. Joseph's where he set assist records both at the college and in Quaker City tourney. Selected MVP in Christmas tourney and in Mid Atlantic Conference. Son of Matt, Sr., who played on championship Warriors of 1946-47 after being center on Hawks' famed Mighty Mites team. Born Feb. 25, 1944, resides in Cherry Hill, N.J. with wife Barbara, son Christopher and daughter Robyn.

JIM LYNAM . . .

In his third season as assistant coach with the 76ers. Was named on June 17, 1985 to fill the spot created with the promotion of Matt Guokas to head coach. Is now Guokas' senior aide and right hand man. Has directed the Sixers' Princeton Summer League squad in 1985 and 1986 seasons. Lynam joined the Sixers with four years of pro coaching experience, two as Jack Ramsay's assistant at Portland in 1981-82 and two as head coach of the San Diego - Los Angeles Clippers in 1983-84 and 1984-85. In his first season as pilot of the Clippers he posted a 30-52 record and the following year was replaced after 61 games with a 22-39 mark. His college head coaching career covered 11 years (158-118 record for a .572 winning percentage) including two seasons at Fairfield University (23-29), five at American University (70-61) and three at St. Joseph's University (65-28). Lynam's .699 winning percentage at St. Joe's is the second best in the school's history behind Ramsay's .765 mark. During his stint with the Hawks, the team made two NIT appearances and a Mid-East Regional Runner-Up finish in the 1981 NCAA tournament. Played three seasons at St. Joe's averaging 12.2 ppg. A member of the St. Joe's and Big Five Hall of Fame. Born September 15, 1941 and resides in Media, PA. with his wife Kay, two daughters and one son.

HISTORY OF THE 76ERS

Professional basketball in its modern phase has had two stages in this city. The first section comprised the career of the Warriors between 1946 and 1962 and saw two titles come here —1947 when the immortal Joe Fulks hit his heights and 1956 in Tom Gola's rookie season.

The Warriors were transferred to San Francisco after the 1961-62 campaign. Irv Kosloff and the late Ike Richman, however, teamed to purchase the Syracuse Nats in the spring of 1963 and bring the franchise here. The team was renamed 76ers and Dolph Schayes was named coach for the 1963-64 season.

Dolph piloted the team for three seasons and in his final year he steered the 76ers to the Eastern Division titled aided by the addition of Wilt Chamberlain who came in January 1965 in a deal with San Francisco. Alex Hannum became the coach in 1966-67 and led the team to a 68-13 record and the NBA title.

Hannum steered the team to its third straight Eastern Division title in 1967-68, and then the Jack Ramsay regime began. Ramsay had been the club's GM during Hannum's two years as coach and when Hannum left after the 1967-68 season, Jack assumed the coaching duties—along with his GM chores. He didn't have Chamberlain who was traded to Los Angeles, but still managed to finish second in the division that year.

Ramsay relinquished the GM role to Don DeJardin just before the start of the 1970-71 season and confined his efforts to coaching for two seasons. For 1972-73 Roy Rubin succeeded Ramsay until the All-Star game break when Kevin Loughery supplanted him. Gene Shue was named coach on June 15, 1973 and started the club's resurgence in the 1973-74 campaign. Pat Williams became the club's GM in August 1974. Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr. purchased the club from Kosloff in May 1976. Julius Erving was secured on October 21, 1976 and the team won the Atlantic Division title and lost in the NBA finals.

On November 4, 1977, Billy Cunningham replaced Shue as coach and led team to Atlantic Division title and to the Eastern Conference finals. In 1979-80 and 1981-82 Billy piloted the team to the NBA finals and in 1982-83 to the NBA championship. Lou Scheinfeld was appointed president of the club on January 30, 1980, and relinquished duties on June 1, 1981. Harold Katz purchased the club July 9, 1981, the sale was approved on Sept. 21 by the NBA and became final on Sept. 24, 1981. Matt Guokas replaced Cunningham as coach on June 14, 1985. John Nash replaced Pat Williams as GM on June 25, 1986.

JABBAR (NEE ALCINDOR) BEST AT TURNING TEAM AROUND

Since the territorial draft was abolished, the No. 1 draft choices have had varying success in turning teams around. The best was Lew Alcindor (now Kareem Abdul Jabbar) when Milwaukee had a 27-55 record in 1968-69 and then went to 56-26 in Alcindor's first year for a rise of 29. Next best was Elvin Hayes with plus 22. Mychal Thompson has the dubious distinction of being the No. 1 pick to have his team post a worse record, Portland going from 58-24 to 45-37 in his rookie campaign. The only one to win an NBA title was Magic Johnson with a plus 13 in the 1979-80 season.

JORDAN TOPS IN OVERALL CONTRIBUTION

Someone suggested the best way to measure a player's overall contribution to his team is by adding his scoring, rebounding and assist averages and subtracting his turnover average. Under this system in 1986-87 Michael Jordan was the league leader with 43.62 followed by Larry Bird 41.70 (the winner last year with 39.4), Magic Johnson 38.65, Charles Barkley 37.75, Kevin McHale 36.02, Dominique Wilkins 34.26, Lafayette Lever 33.73, Larry Nance 31.97, Clyde Drexler 31.83, Mark Aguirre 31.51, Xavier McDaniel 31.27, Karl Malone 31.17, Kiki Vandeweghe 31.10, Isiah Thomas 30.35, Dale Ellis 30.35 and Terry Cummings 30.03.

BARKLEY'S LEAGUE'S BEST 2-PT. FG SHOOTER

Some folks like Pat Riley claim the NBA's field goal percentage is misleading because it combines 2 and 3 pt attempts. So we took the players who attempted 50 or more 3 pt. field goals and subtracted these from their average totals to produce their 2 point field goal average. No. 1 was Charles Barkley with a 64.3 average, the leader by a good 10 points. All but one of the players had better averages minus the 3 pointers. The exception was Detlef Schrempf whose average dropped 0.08 without the 3 pointers. The biggest increase was achieved by Brad Davis going from 45.6 overall to 50.6 for just 2 pointers.

SIXERS' LEADS AND DEFICITS 1986-87

An analysis of the 76ers log last year shows that there were three games last season when the Sixers never had a lead (at Phoenix 11/14, at Milwaukee 12/16 and vs. Washington 12/25). Conversely there were three games in which opponents never had a lead (at New Jersey 2/4, vs. Sacramento 2/20, and vs. Washington 3/6). The biggest Sixers lead of the season was 42 pts. (102-60) vs. Sacramento 2/20. They also had a 30 point lead vs. N.J. 2/4 and leads in the twenties vs. the Los Angeles Clippers, Milwaukee, Boston (twice), Golden State and New York (twice). Conversely, the Sixers' worst deficit was 39 (101-62) in the third period of a 11/14 game at Phoenix. They also had a 33 point deficit at New Jersey, a 30-pointer at the Lakers, a 31-pointer at Boston, and a 35-pointer at Milwaukee. The Sixers also had seven other games in which they had disadvantages in the 20-point realm.

POSITION BREAKDOWN OF 1986-1987 PLAYERS

There were 341 players in the NBA last season (335 of whom played) and by position they broke down to 142 guards, 136 forwards and 63 centers.

DOUBLE FIGURE SCORING

In the NBA, as anywhere else in the game of basketball, consistency has always been the name of the game. Being able to put double figure points on the board night after night is a great attribute. Six players were able to score double figures in every game they played during the 1986-87 season, paced by Michael Jordan who was 82 of 82. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar completed his ninth consecutive season of scoring in double figures in every game he played and now has a string of 774 games of scoring at least 10 points.

8 POST BETTER FIELD GOAL % THAN FREE THROW %

Eight players in the NBA in 1986-87 had better field goal percentages than free throw percentages, none of them starters. Mark West (54.3 to 51.4) also did it last year and by far played the most minutes (1333) of the eight. Greg Kite (42.7 to 38.2) played 745 minutes. Others to do it were Chis Washburn (39.3 to 35.3), Mark McNamara (46.7 to 36.8) and Brad Wright (43.5 to 42.9) who played 138 minutes for the Knicks. Three others — David Thirdkill (41.7 to 31.3), Bruce Douglas (29.2 to 0.0) and Michael O'Koren (38.1 to 0.0) were dropped during the season.

FEERICK ONLY MAN TO LEAD LEAGUE IN FG% AND FT%

Bob Feerick, of the old Washington Caps, did something in 1947-48 that no other player has accomplished, topping the circuit in field goal percentage (34.0) and free throw percentage (78.8) the same season. Neither percentage would rank him very high today.

ONLY 5 CURRENT COACHES WON COACH OF YEAR LAURELS

Of the current 23 coaches, only five won NBA Coach of the Year laurels. Gene Shue won twice in 1968-69 and 1981-82 and Bill Fitch in 1975-76 and 1979-80. Frank Layden was honored in 1983-84, Mike Fratello in 1985-86 and Mike Schuler in 1986-87. None of them won the NBA titles the year they were selected. The only 3 coaches to win Coach of the Year the same year they won the NBA title were Bill Sharman, Lakers, 1971-72; Red Holzman, New York, 1969-70 and Red Auerbach, Boston, 1964-65.

HISTORY OF NBA POINT DIFFERENTIAL

The point differential in all 23,177 regular season games played in the NBA since its origin in the 1946-47 season, is shown in the chart below. It shows the number of times each point difference occurred and also what percentage of all games played, ended with that difference, as researched by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows at least one game ended in a difference from 1 through 54 and that a two point difference has occurred the most times (1968). There have been 16 games with point differences in the 50's and 60's including the March 19, 1972 game in which Los Angeles beat Golden State 162-99 for the largest margin of victory (63 points) in NBA history. More than one of every four games are decided by four points or less and over 49 percent of all games end with a margin of eight points or less.

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, New Jersey, won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on August 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However, his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

TITLE ROUND FAILURES IN FOLLOWING SEASONS

Five NBA teams failed to make the playoffs the year after they were in the championship finals. The 1968-69 Boston team was the only one to win the title and then fail to make the playoffs the following year. The others were St. Louis 1960-61, failing in 1961-62; San Francisco 1963-64, failing in 1964-65 after selling Wilt Chamberlain to the 76ers, Milwaukee 1973-74, failing in 1974-75; and Phoenix 1975-76, failing in 1976-77.

CHAMBERLAIN vs. RUSSELL 1959-1969

Here is the first complete recap ever made of the NBA duels between Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell between the 1959-60 and 1968-69 campaigns. The stats show their records when Wilt was with the Philadelphia and San Francisco Warriors, the 76ers, and the Los Angeles Lakers and Russell with Boston. The results show Wilt far ahead in scoring and rebounding.

SICHTING CURRENT LEADER WITH NO FOULOUTS

Jerry Sichting has played 486 NBA games and has never fouled out for the leadership of all active NBA players who never have fouled out of a game. Other streaks are Rolando Blackman 481, Randy Wittman 271, Steve Colter 229, Brook Steppe 211, Leon Wood 182, Pace Mannion 171, Gerald Wilkins 161, Terry Porter 159, Danny Young 158, Bernard Thompson 144, Craig Ehlo 132, John Battle 128, Charles Jones (Port.) 121 and Bill Wennington 114. However, both Blackman and Colter fouled out of a playoff game. Moses Malone has the current longest streak (800 games) of no foulouts, having played 724 consecutive games in the regular season, 67 playoff games and 9 all-star games since he last fouled out on Jan. 6, 1978. Of course the league record is held by Wilt Chamberlain who played 1045 regular season games, 160 playoff games and 19 All-Star games without a foulout.

BARRY OWNS A NOVEL TRIPLE

Rick Barry, current play by play announcer for WTBS, holds the unusual distinction of being the only player to capture scoring titles in the NBA (with San Francisco in 1966-67), ABA (with Oakland in 1968-69) and the NCAA (with the University of Miami in 1964-65).

13 EX-PLAYERS SERVE AS COACHES

Of the NBA's 23 coaches, 13 are former NBA or ABA players (Dave Wohl, Matt Guokas, Bill Russell, Gene Shue, Pat Riley, Doug Moe, George Karl, Lenny Wilkens, Bob Weiss, Doug Collins, John Wetzel, Kevin Loughery and K.C. Jones). The other 10 were college head or assistant coaches.

NBA PLAYOFF WINNING MARGINS—1946-47 THRU 1986-87

Since the NBA's origin in the 1946-47 season, there have been 1527 playoff games with a total point difference between winner and loser of 15,663 points. That's an average of 10.26 points per game according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The chart shows the number of times each point difference has occurred in playoff history. As in regular season games, a two point difference has occurred the most times (116). These totals include 10 special playoff games which were played to break ties in regular season final standings and, thus, determine playoff opponents. There have been three games with a margin of 50 or more points, including the March 19, 1956 game in which the Minneapolis Lakers beat the St. Louis Hawks 133-75 for the largest margin of victory (58 points) in NBA playoff history.

LOWS SINCE 24-SECOND CLOCK

Since the 24-second clock was introduced into the NBA in 1954-55 season, the lowest scoring regular season game was a 62-57 victory by Boston over Milwaukee on February 27, 1955 at Providence. In this game the floor was atop ice and the moisture came through the boards to make running hazardous. The total of 119 is the low and so are the 57 points by Milwaukee (now the Atlanta Hawks). The lowest scoring playoff game found Ft. Wayne beating Syracuse, 74-71, April 7, 1955 at Indianapolis. The total of 145 points and the 71 by Syracuse are the lows. Buffalo scored 63 vs. Milwaukee Oct. 21, 1972 and Chicago 65 at Phoenix, Mar. 6, 1975; Cleveland 67, Nov. 19, 1977, Dallas 68, Feb. 4, 1981, and Phoenix 68, Mar. 8, 1981, and Indiana 64 at New York, December 10, 1985.

FIELD GOAL ANALYSIS 1986-87

NBA games are won more than 3 out of every 4 times by the team making the most field goals in the game. The team which had the most field goals won 677 times and lost only 202 times for a winning percentage of .770 during the 1986-87 season, according to records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. Both teams scored an equal number of field goals on 64 occasions. The LA Lakers, Dallas, and Boston were best at winning games while outscoring their rivals from the field as all three won over 90% of such games. The LA Clippers, New Jersey, and Sacramento had the most trouble. Winning games while being outscored in field goals was very difficult, as no team could win half of those games. However, the LA Lakers, 76ers, and Milwaukee had the most success. Denver, New York, and New Jersey had the most trouble winning with fewer field goals. Complete figures follow:

DOMINANCE INDEX RATINGS

Several years ago Sports Illustrated Magazine devised a Novel Dominance Index with the idea of showing via points how much a team dominated a season. To secure the figure for each team, the championship team's average margin of victory is divided by the margin of victory of the second best team. In some cases, the team with the best win and loss record didn't have the best margin of victory. All this deals with the regular season action and, naturally, there are many cases where the team with the best regular season record failed to win the playoffs. The best team according to this system is the 1955-56 Warriors which had a 4.3 victory margin against an 0.7 differential for next best Boston. The best margin of victory was 12.3 for Los Angeles in 1971-72.

LENGTH OF NBA's 1986-87 GAMES

This chart shows how long it took to play the league's 943 games in the 1986-87 season. For each team it shows the total minutes of its games, home, away and overall; the length of a game broken down into hours (1:55.9 means 1 hr. 55.9 mins.) and the fastest and slowest games each team played. The chart shows the Lakers had the fastest games on its home court (2:02.5), and Washington (2:00.6) the fastest away and overall 203.6. New Jersey was the slowest team at home 2:21.1, away 2:13.9 and overall 2:13.0. A four overtime game, New Jersey at Golden State, was the longest (3:20), while the fastest game of 1:46 was Sacramento at Milwaukee. For the trivia fans adding all the 943 games together would give you a total of 2013 hours and 48 minutes. The league average was 2:08.1 compared to 2:07.2 in 1985-86.

ALL-TIME ANALYSIS OF NBA PLAYERS

There have been 2032 different players who have appeared in at least one league game since the NBA began in the 1946-47 season. Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan has done a thorough analysis of their careers. The study turns up some interesting facts. The 2032 players have played a total of 7714 seasons which averages 3.80 years per player. They have a total of 455,155 games, which averages 223.99 games per career. These players have scored 4,906,649 points which averages 2414.69 points per career. Thus, the average NBA career spans about 3⅘ seasons, 224 games, and 2415 points. 335 players performed in the NBA during the 1986 season, including 64 playing their rookie season in the league.

A WILT RECORD THAT STILL STANDS

Everyone is familiar with the league record 100 points that Wilt Chamberlain scored in 1962 versus the Knicks, but it is not as widely known that he also holds the league record for assists (21) by a center. He achieved this figure Feb. 2, 1968 vs. Detroit. Maurice Cheeks equalled that figure to tie Wilt for the club mark on Oct. 30, 1982 vs. the Nets, but of course Cheeks is a guard.

LAKERS BEST IN CLOSE GAMES

The LA Lakers had the best percentage in games with 3-point or under final spreads posting a 6-1 (85.7%) mark followed by Utah 10-3 (76.9). Detroit had the most wins (12). Chicago played the most games (21) and had the worst record (5-16). Boston was the leader in games decided by 10 points or more with a 36-6 record. The LA Clippers were the worst at 4-48 and also engaged in the most games (52) in the category.

ASSISTS ANALYSIS—1986-87

The ability to get the ball to the right shooter, in the right place, and at the right time can usually result in a good shot and good shots are what it takes to win games in the NBA. Recording more assists in a game than the other team results in a win more than 7 of every 10 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan, show that the team with the most assists won 640 times and lost only 254 times for a percentage of .716. There were 49 games in which both teams recorded an equal number of assists. Dallas, the LA Lakers, and Atlanta compiled the best records in this department of play, while the LA Clippers, New Jersey, and New York experienced the most trouble. Winning games while recording fewer assists was not an easy task. Dallas, and the LA Lakers were the only teams that could win half of such games. New Jersey, Denver, and the LA Clippers had the most trouble winning with fewer assists. Complete figures follow:

REBOUNDING ANALYSIS—1986-87

Rebounding is one of the most important elements of basketball in the NBA where the winning team out-rebounds the loser 2 out of every 3 games. Records compiled by Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan, show that the team with more rebounds won 603 times and lost 302 times for a percentage of .666. There were 38 games on which both teams had an equal number of rebounds. The best percentage belonged to Boston, the LA Lakers, and Dallas. The LA Clippers, Sacramento, and New Jersey had the most trouble winning games when securing more rebounds. Winning games while being out-rebounded is tough to do with only 3 teams (the LA Lakers, Dallas, and Atlanta) able to win half of those games. New Jersey, the LA Clippers, and San Antonio had the most trouble winning when out-rebounded. Complete records follow:

NBA WINNING MARGINS—1986-87

The average margin of victory is on the rise again, for the third straight year, according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The average was up to 11.30 points during the 1986-87 season, which was a substantial increase over the 10.79 average of the 1985-86 season. It also represents the first time above 11 since the 1972-73 season, and the highest since the 12.20 average of the 1971-72 season. The total margin of victory for all 943 regular season games added up to 10,656 points. A 56 point margin was the largest of the year. Nearly ¼ of all games had a margin of 4 points or less and over ⅓ had a margin of 6 points or less. There were 43 games, this season, with a margin of 30 or more points, up from 29 last season and 15 such games two seasons ago.

MAGIC NUMBER ONE IN POINT PRODUCTION

Someone suggested that the MVP is the one who is responsible for the most points in a game. A player would get 2 points for each assist. Then add all the points he scored to the points for assists and divide the total by the number of games he played to get his average points produced a game. Under this system Michael Jordan was not the king, but Magic Johnson was for the second straight year.

WINNING WAYS — 1986-87

It is most important to get a good start in an NBA game and also to have a strong finish, as has been the case in previous years. The team which leads at the end of the first quarter won 67% of the time., according to Dick Pfander of Battle Creek, Michigan. The LA Lakers, Atlanta, and Detroit were best at winning games which they were trailing at the end of the first quarter, While the LA Clippers, New Jersey and San Antonio had the most trouble coming back after falling behind early. Winning the fourth quarter produced a victory over 65% of the time. That percentage could have been higher but on some occasions the winner had a solid lead entering the final quarter and turned the game over to its bench to finish. That point is illustrated by the fact that Boston, Dallas, and the LA Lakers, each won 23 or more games in which they lost the final quarter. The playoffs were very similar to the regular NBA season. The winning team won the first quarter over 66% of the time and won the fourth quarter almost 70% of the time. The last quarter percentage could perhaps have been higher, but on 10 occasion the winner had a solid lead entering the final quarter and coasted. The totals follow:
